FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BOULEVARD adds Amy Nielsen to its Family Office™ team

MINNEAPOLIS, MN. September 1, 2019 – Boulevard Wealth Management, Inc. announced the addition of Amy Nielsen, RICP® to its Twin Cities practice. In keeping with the firm’s fiduciary-only approach, Amy joins BOULEVARD as an independent professional without a brokerage license. As a Retirement Income Certified Professional (RICP®), she specializes in retirement planning matters, but adds an emphasis on healthcare management. Nielsen has been serving clients in Minnesota since 2014.

"We couldn't be more pleased with the addition of Amy to the team. Her faith-based approach to service and her unique background make her a tremendous asset to the firm. We are fortunate to add her expertise to our Family Office™ environment for clients," said Troy Noor, CFA, CFP®, the firm's Executive Director. "Amy is truly a great fit for our families."

BOULEVARD is a comprehensive wealth management firm based in Eden Prairie, Minnesota. Started during the 2008 financial crisis, the firm maintains multi-state investment advisory registrations and is a licensed insurance agency.
